

The Special Events for Mexico Beach is accepting applications for artist to participate in the 19th Annual Art and Wine Festival!

The event will be held on Saturday, October 13th, 2018 at the Driftwood Inn. Artists will enjoy a private social on the grounds across the street from the festival while judging takes place. Space is limited to only THIRTY (30) artists, so don't delay in signing up!

Complimentary hors d'oeuvres, live music, cash bar and both live and silent auction will take place during the festival.

All artists must submit an application with photographs depicting the artwork to be showcased that will be approved by the committee along with the participation fee. Entry fee is $40.00 and one (1) piece of art work that will be auctioned. Entry will include one table, one art back board for hanging (this is shared by two artists that will be back to back), a commemorative wine glass, one complimentary glass of wine, and an artist only social as mentioned above.

Setup for the show will take place on Saturday morning starting at 8am and all displays must be completed by 10am. The festival will open to the public at 2pm and artist are not to breakdown their display until after 8pm.

Once your application is approved, a follow up letter will be sent outlining the details of the event, scheduling and guidelines that each artist must adhere to. There will be no refunds of entry fees after your application has been approved.

Please note all times listed are in Central Time.

Thank you for your interest and we look forward to having you participate at the 19th Annual Art and Wine Festival!
