

On Saturday, February 19, 2022, the 22nd Annual Mexico Beach Gumbo Cook-Off Gumbo King will be named! A panel of food connoisseurs will determine who will be the King of this Gumbo competition, so if you think you've got the best gumbo or stew, then ladle up! This year's Cook-Off will take place at Parker Park, located at 2500 Highway 98, Mexico Beach.

No application fee to enter. All entries must complete an entry form and are required to produce five (5) gallons or more of their specialty Gumbo and/or Brunswick stew. Chefs will be responsible for bringing containers/heating devices to keep your food nice and hot (crock pots & propane gas cookers are ideal & preferred). We also request each team provide their own extension cords to power any crock pots or cookers that will require power. You will also be responsible for dishing out samples to the crowd and collecting their payment, in ticket format. All servers must wear gloves when serving food. To ensure safe health protocols, we will be following and complying with all State and CDC issued guidelines. Face masks will be encouraged. Gloves and face masks will be provided.

Those competing may begin checking in no earlier than 7:30am and all competitors are to be finished setting up by 9:00am. Judging will begin at 9:00am and you must have your item(s) cooked, hot and ready. All supplies needed for judging and selling will be provided by the Special Events for Mexico Beach committee. Each entry will receive one, 6' foot, table. Tables will be assigned, so you must check in before setting up. A complete letter stating the rules will be sent out to all chefs/teams prior to the event.
